Family Nights Spring 2010

Intro to Paganism

March 2: Paganism 101

Facilitators: Elizabeth Runyon and Joy Germack

What paganism is and what it isn't. What is sacred and why. A short history of modern paganism.

March 9: The Wheel of the Year

Facilitators: Elizabeth Runyon and Joy Germack

The celebratory circle: the solstices and equinoxes, the four great holidays.

March 16: The Elements

Facilitators: Elizabeth Runyon and Joy Germack

Working with magical correspondences, the elements in our daily lives, dancing the four directions.

Caring for Our Planet

March 2: Recycling

Facilitator: Earth Web

This workshop will include a short film, information about recycling in Albuquerque, and recycling craft projects. The crafts created in the workshop will be sold on Earth Day to raise money for a cause to be chosen during the workshop.

March 9: Organic Gardening

Facilitator: Earth Web

This workshop will include visual displays of various gardens, examples of compost from different homes, a presentation on how to create a small garden, and the opportunity to start a container garden using organic seeds and homemade compost.

March 16: Climate Change

Facilitator: Earth Web

This workshop will feature a short film and an opportunity to study the effects of climate change on different areas of the world and on different animal species. Families will break into small groups to study different things and create a poster. Then everyone will all get back together, and each group will share what they learned and present their.

Singing and Stories for Spring

March 2, 9, and 16

Facilitators: Lynne McLaughlin (singing) and Daylene Marshall (stories)

For those children and who would like to be a part of the pageant on March 20, Lynne McLaughlin and Daylene Marshall will lead this three-session workshop. Singing is fun and good for you! Our pageant will welcome and celebrate the spring season.

Childcare and Games

March 2, 9, and 16

Our childcare staff will be present to care for children while their families participate in other classes. And for those who would like to just come and socialize, we will have games set up in the social hall. and
