First Unitarian
Albuquerque | East Mountains|Socorro

November 01, 2026
10:30 am

Gathering — Therese Macali
All Creatures from the Earth and Sky (arr. RV Williams)
When Memory Fades (Finlandia, Sibelius, arr. Larson)
Amor Eterno (Raul DiBlasio)

Welcome & Invitations — Judy Goering, Worship Leader

Shared Ministry Moment — Radical Generosity Committee

Chalice Lighting — Carmen Samora

Affirmation — All of Us Are Loved (Amanda Udis-Kessler)
All of us are loved. Each of us is welcome.
No one is a stranger. No one is an outcast. No one is alone.
Everything we do when our hearts are grateful and our lives are faithful makes a better world, one that we can call everybody's home.

Opening Words — Rev. Emily Wright-Magoon

Singing Together — Singing the Journey #1001
Breaths (Ysaye M. Barnwell)

Time for All Ages — Uncle Monarch and the Day of the Dead Book by Judy Goldman

Message — Carmen Samora

Ritual — Way Over Yonder (Carole King)

Responsive Reading — Singing the Living Tradition #718
All Souls May Sarton

Meditation & Prayer
Minister: Peace be with you
Congregation: And also with you

Offering Beautiful City (Stephen Schwartz)

This quarter, loose coins and envelopes marked "Change for the Future" go to Roadrunner Food Bank, which supplies food to hundreds of organizations throughout New Mexico

Peace Greeting

Singing Together Singing the Journey #1051
We Are…(Barnwell)

Benediction

Today's pulpit guest is Carmen Samora. She has been a member of First U since 1999 and is of Indigenous Mexican descent.

Día de los Muertos Celebration Continues: After service, join us for pan de muerto and a viewing of a family-friendly (PG) día de los muertos-themed movie

Annual Memorial Service: Every year at this time, we honor those we have lost—friends who have lived at least part of their lives in the caring arms of this congregation. Please join us after the service (around 11:45) in the Memorial Hall and Garden for our traditional Memorial Wall Ceremony.

1st Friday Game Night! Join us for our monthly all-ages game night on Friday, November 6 at 6:30 pm in Memorial Hall. Bring a snack or game to share.